ALL NEW STUDY - GOSPEL OF JOHN

Joy of Living is pleased to announce the release of an all-new, 2-part study of the Gospel of John, with commentary by Nancy Collins and study questions by Kathy Rowland.

- Gospel of John Part 1 is a 12-lesson study covering John chapters 1-11.
Available the end of July, with digital and special-order copies now available.
- Gospel of John Part 2 is an 11-lesson study covering John chapters 12-21.
Available November 2016, with digital and special-order copies available in October 2016.

In this gospel, the apostle John gives us specific incidents and teachings that reveal to us the deity of Jesus Christ and help us move into a relationship with Him. In fact, John said, "Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name" (John 20:30-31).

For pricing and ordering information see current order form.

EXODUS IN TWO PARTS

Exodus: From Egypt to the Promised Land is being released in a 2-part format. Part 1 will be available in printed format in mid-July, with Part 2 to follow in November. Digital and special-order copies of both parts are available now.

The content of each lesson will remain exactly the same as in the complete version; however the page numbering of the lessons in Part 2 will be different.

Exodus Part 1 15 lessons (covers Exodus chapters 1-24)

Exodus Part 2 12 lessons (covers Exodus chapters 25-40 and portions of Numbers, Deuteronomy and Joshua)

This decision was made to help those who find it difficult to cover the cost of our longer studies all up front. Splitting the study allows each half to have a more moderate price.

WAREHOUSE SALE

Joy of Living is no longer using Amazon.com to ship our Bible study materials.

Because of this, Amazon returned to us a large quantity of various Joy of Living studies that were in their warehouses.

Many of these books had damaged covers or corners; otherwise they are in good condition!

We are offering these damaged studies at 20% off!

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Depth Perception

Have you ever had to wear an eye patch? A number of years ago I scratched the cornea of my eye and had to wear an eye patch for about a week. It was a new experience. I didn't have any depth perception. Well, what does that mean? According to the American Heritage Dictionary, depth perception is "the ability to perceive spatial relationships, especially distances between objects, in three dimensions." With only one eye I could see everything, but with limitations. I couldn't properly judge distance, or see in three dimensions (3-D).

I challenge you to try this experiment: Close your right eye and extend the index finger of your right hand. Line your index finger up with some object in the distance. Now, without moving your finger, close your left eye and open your right eye. Hah—it appears that the object moved or that your finger moved, because they are no longer aligned—but neither is true. You are just seeing from a different angle. God made our brains so that we take the signals sent to us from both eyes and put them together, so that we see in 3-D. We can more accurately judge distance and shape because of this ability.

In a similar way, sometimes it seems that the Bible is contradicting itself, but upon closer study you will discover that it is not. What you are seeing in both passages is correct, but to gain the greater understanding you need to see both sides of the truth together—with "both eyes"—so that you can see spiritually, in "3-D," so to speak. You'll need to study a little harder, dig a little deeper, read the context of each passage, and see why it is being said and to whom it is being said, then go to the Lord and ask Him to help you see with "spiritual depth perception."

CLEARANCE SALE - DISCONTINUED STUDY

With the release of the all new, two-part study of the Gospel of John, the older 22-lesson study in one book will be discontinued.

Written by Doris W. Greig, this study of the Gospel of John was released in spiral-bound format in 2003.

The remaining stock will be sold at 20% off the regular price.

There is a limited quantity of this study available.

All sales are final.

For pricing and ordering information see current order form.

COPY AND PASTE

With the advent of the computer, online Bibles, and digital Bible studies, the ability to copy and paste large portions of Scripture has arrived.

This gives the advantage of being able to do a study quickly. However, that has its drawbacks.

The purpose of Joy of Living studies is not merely for us to complete a lesson and then fellowship with those in our class.

Proverbs 10:14 says, "The wise store up knowledge." The very act of writing out or typing out a Bible verse can help you "store" it in your mind. Also, because it takes longer to write or type than it does to copy and paste, you have a greater opportunity to think about the verse and its meaning.

Joy of Living questions are designed not only to give you head knowledge, but also to help you think through how a particular verse or biblical principle can be applied to your own life.

If you take time to ponder the Scriptures and how they apply to your life, God will begin to reveal to you in greater measure just who He is, how much He loves you, and to what great lengths He has gone in order for you to have a relationship with Him.

Please take time to fellowship with God in His Word. If you copy and paste your answers, read the verses carefully and think about them.

"Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent" (John 17:3).

GOD HATH NOT PROMISED

*God hath not promised skies always blue,
flower-strewn pathways
all our lives through.*

*God hath not promised
sun without rain,
joy without sorrow,
peace without pain.*

*But God hath promised strength for the day,
rest for the laborer,
light on the way.*

*Grace for the trial,
help from above,
unfailing sympathy,
undying love.*
- Helen Steiner Rice

PRAYER REQUESTS

“I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.”
1 Timothy 2:1-2

- Pray for Joy of Living authors and editors as they work on new studies.
- Pray for those who work in the Joy of Living office and warehouse that they would do their jobs with excellence.
- Pray for Joy of Living teachers and administrators as they prepare for their classes.
- Pray for Joy of Living group leaders, that they would allow God’s love to flow through them, and that they would know when to speak and when to be silent.
- Pray that those who attend Joy of Living groups would come to know His saving grace if they don’t already, and that all would grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Election, Predestination, Choice

Many people struggle with the concepts of election, predestination, and choice. We are finite, limited beings, attempting to know and understand the infinite, unlimited God of the Universe. First Corinthians 13:9,10,12 says, “For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears...For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.” So, although we may begin to see how election, predestination, and choice fit together, we will not be able to see the fullness of it until we are finally with Him.

Scripture tells us plainly that God chooses (see Romans 9:10-16 and many other examples). It also tells us, “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). When we look at these passages, accepting both as equally true, we begin to see, just a little, what God is telling us.

Think of this: there is nothing about us to commend us to God. We are all sinners, doomed to hell (see Romans 3:23; 6:23; Revelation 20:11-15). There is nothing we can do to save ourselves. Even the faith by which we believe is a gift from God (see Ephesians 2:8-9). Romans 5:8 says, “But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” And so we see, “It does not, therefore, depend on human desire or effort, but on God’s mercy” (Romans 9:16).

Now consider this: God gives us a choice, “...but now he commands all people everywhere to repent” (Acts 17:30). Jesus said, “Repent and believe the good news!” (Mark 1:15b). Paul and Silas said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved” (Acts 16:31).

All of these are equally true. When we see that there is nothing in us to commend us to God, all we can do is bow before Him in deepest humility and thanksgiving.

“Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!” (Romans 11:33)

Portrait of Integrity

The Life of Ray C. Stedman

by Mark S. Mitchell

(From Discovery House Publishers)

Abandoned by his father when he was a young boy and emotionally cut-off from his mother, Ray Stedman had a ruggedly independent upbringing. Yet, through faith, he matured into one of the great pastors, expositors, and spiritual leaders of the twentieth century.

Today's church is filled with pastors and leaders—men like Charles Swindol and Luis Palau—who consider him their mentor and lifelong friend.

Joy of Living Studies by Ray Stedman include: Job, Psalms of Faith, Psalms from the Heart, Nehemiah, Prophecy in Daniel, Highlights of the Old Testament, Gospel of Mark, Acts, Romans, Ephesians and Revelation. See page 3 for prices of individual studies.
