YOU CAN DO IT, TOO! OPENING YOUR HEART AND HOME TO SHARE GOD'S LOVE

In this warm-hearted book Joy of Living founder Doris Greig shares some of the unexpected ways God used her, an ordinary woman, to touch others with His love.

There are questions for study and reflection at the end of each chapter to encourage and challenge the reader to share God's love with others in the everyday circumstances of life.

Also included are 250 easy recipes and household hints. The book is in 8 1/2 by 11 spiral-bound format, and includes a complete recipe index. (See excerpt on page 2.)

THE JOY OF KNOWING

The Joy of Knowing is a great way to introduce people to the exciting, joyful adventure of Bible study. It is, also, a great short study for those who want to review what God has done, is doing, and will do for His children.

Small (5.5" x 8.5") and spiral-bound, The Joy of Knowing is compact and easy to use. The Bible verses referenced each day are printed for the reader's convenience on the right hand side of each day's two facing pages.

The daily lesson takes about 5 minutes minimum, although there is additional reading provided at the bottom of the page for those who want to explore the day's subject more thoroughly.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FROM JOY OF LIVING

Everything lasting that fulfills the human soul, now and throughout eternity, is wrapped up in God and in truly knowing Him: "This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent" (John 17:3).

Christmas is all about God the Father loving us and making a way for us to have a relationship with Him.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16)

"The Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world." (1 John 4:14)

"This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son

I'll never forget preparing peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for my four-year-old Kathy and her five-year-old friend Louisa. My 15-month-old son was sitting in his high chair, banging his spoon against the tray to capture my attention.

Louisa was looking at me very seriously as I spread the peanut butter on one slice of bread and jelly on the other. She seemed a little worried; I wondered if her mother did it differently.

Then Louisa asked, "Mrs. Greig, are you going to have a baby?"

"Well," I said as I looked down at my greatly expanded waistline, "I certainly look pregnant, don't I. I must be pregnant."

Before Louisa could ask how babies were made, I decided I'd better call her mother and let her share with Louisa what she wants shared at this point in her life. I thought of different customs in different lands, and knew that Louisa's mother, a war bride, might want to handle the situation totally differently than I would in our home. In the meantime, Louisa continued to peer at me inquisitively, leaning forward.

"Yes, Louisa, I am going to have a baby in about one week."

Still in a serious mood, she looked at me and said, "Do you know that your baby will be Chinese?"

What did she say? I wondered if I had heard her correctly. I had been so involved in making sandwiches that I had lost the trend of conversation.

"Why is that?"

And Louisa said, "Because every third baby born into the world is Chinese, Mrs. Greig! Didn't you know that?"

"Well," I said, "I didn't know that. But Louisa, I think that means that one out of every three babies in the whole wide world are Chinese, but in our family we will probably have another little girl just like Kathy, or a little boy just like Billy."

"Are you sure, Mrs. Greig?" And I could see the wheels turning in her head. I knew that she would go home to her mother and ask for an explanation, so I served the sandwiches and ignored the topic of conversation, feeling that we had covered enough of it in my kitchen! Later, I called her mother and we both had a good laugh over Louisa's theory. I'm sure mother and daughter had a good talk that day.

Our children and their friends can really bring a lot of life and laughter, as well as fingerprints and scattered toys, into our lives. But their candid comments make it all worthwhile.

We Christians have the privilege of treating children, our own and our neighbors', with respect and dignity, no matter what the topic of conversation may be. So I'm glad I didn't laugh at Louisa and say, "You're so foolish, Dear." I could have gone into a long technical explanation of why we would not have a Chinese baby. But to Louisa I was a reflection of Jesus Christ, His dignity and His love.

When Louisa attended school in the fall with my daughter, she came to our home every morning one half hour early just to sit at our breakfast table and have family devotions with us. If she hadn't had breakfast, she would eat with us; sometimes she'd have a second breakfast. We would read a little from Little Visits with God, and discuss what the Lord had in mind for our day. We would pray together as a family.

Louisa participated in our family devotions and joined in discussion and prayer all the way through sixth grade. We had a chance to introduce wonderful biblical concepts to her, this precious child sent to us by God. Yes, she strayed a bit in her teen years, but when she married and had her own little one, she and her husband began bringing her to Sunday School, just as she had come to Sunday School and church with our family.

I am reminded of the Lord Jesus' words from Matthew 25:40 that challenge every Christian: "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me."

SPLIT STUDIES

Joy of Living exists to help people study and teach God's Word.

In an effort to make the courses accessible to those who find it difficult to pay for our longer studies all at once, we have split the longer courses in half.

Splitting the study allows each half to have a more moderate price.

The complete study, in one book, of each split course has been discontinued, however, they will be available as long as supplies last.

The split courses are as follows:

Course	Lessons Covered
Genesis Part 1	1-15
Genesis Part 2	15-28
Exodus Part 1	1-15
Exodus Part 2	15-26
Mark Part 1	1-15
Mark Part 2	15-32
Gospel of John Part 1	1-12
Gospel of John Part 2	12-22
Ephesians Part 1	1-11
Ephesians Part 2	11-21 (Plus 2 bonus commentaries)
Hebrews Part 1	1-11
Hebrews Part 2	11-21

Still to be split:

the studies of Acts and Revelation

AUDIO LECTURES

Joy of Living audio lectures are a helpful source of ideas for your own lectures if you are a Bible study teacher.

If you are doing a Joy of Living study on your own rather than with a group, the audio lectures may enhance your personal study. Each lecture covers the essential teaching of the Bible passage being studied in the particular lesson and endeavors to clarify the passage and challenge the listener to live a more committed daily life.

- Each Lecture Series includes lectures given to Joy of Living classes by experienced teachers.
- All series are available on CD for rental or purchase. Rentals may be kept as long as needed.
- Lectures may also be purchased as downloadable mp3 files at the rental price, and may then be played on an iPod, mp3 player, or computer, or may be burned to CD for use in a CD player.
- Note: Audio quality varies and may not be suitable for use as a "substitute teacher" for a group.

The cost varies according to the length of the course being studied. Visit our website or see current order form for pricing.

AMAZONSMILE.COM

Just a reminder that while you are doing your Christmas shopping online you can support Joy of Living Bible Studies with every Amazon.com purchase.

AmazonSmile is a website operated by Amazon that lets customers enjoy the same wide selection of products, low prices, and convenient shopping features as on Amazon.com. The difference is that when customers shop on AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com), the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the price of eligible purchases to the charitable organization selected by customers.

The first time you use AmazonSmile, go to smile.amazon.com. Sign in with your normal email address and Amazon password, or click the link to create an Amazon account if you don't have one, then select Joy of Living as the non-profit you'd like to support. Each time you plan to shop on Amazon.com, just log into AmazonSmile and proceed as usual. It is that easy!

into the world that we might live through him." (1 John 4:9)

"This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins." (1 John 4:10)

Throughout this Christmas season and this coming new year, we pray that your lives will be filled and overflowing with the love, the peace and the joy that only knowing and walking with Jesus can bring, and that His love will compel you to share His truth with the lost and dying world He came to save.

Portrait of Integrity

The Life of Ray C. Stedman

by Mark S. Mitchell

(From Discovery House Publishers)

Abandoned by his father when he was a young boy and emotionally cut-off from his mother, Ray Stedman had a ruggedly independent upbringing. Yet, through faith, he matured into one of the great pastors, expositors, and spiritual leaders of the twentieth century.

Today's church is filled with pastors and leaders—men like Charles Swindol and Luis Palau—who consider him their mentor and lifelong friend.

Joy of Living Studies by Ray Stedman include: Job, Psalms of Faith, Psalms from the Heart, Nehemiah, Prophecy in Daniel, Highlights of the Old Testament, Gospel of Mark, Acts, Romans, Ephesians, Revelation and Treasures from the Parables. See page 3 for prices of individual studies.
