JOY

HOW TO USE JOY OF LIVING MATERIALS

This unique Bible study series may be used by people who know nothing about the Bible, as well as by more knowledgeable Christians. Each person is nurtured and disciplined in God's Word, and many develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as they study.

Joy of Living is based on the idea that each person needs to open their Bible and let God speak to them by His Holy Spirit, applying the Scripture's message to their needs and opportunities, their family, church, job, community, and the world at large.

Only a Bible is needed for this study series. While commentaries may be helpful, it is not recommended that people consult them as they work through the daily study questions. It is most important to allow the Holy Spirit to lead them through the Bible passage and apply it to their hearts and lives. If desired, additional commentaries may be consulted after answering the questions on a particular passage.

The first lesson of a series includes an Introduction to the study, plus the first week's daily study questions. Some questions are simple, and some are deeper for those who are more advanced.¹ The individual works through the Bible passages each day, praying and asking God's guidance in applying the truth to their own life. (The next lesson will contain the commentary on the Bible passage being covered in the study questions.)

TO USE IN A GROUP SETTING:

After the daily personal study of the passage has been completed, the class gathers in a small group, where they pray together and discuss what they have written in response to the questions about the passage, clarifying problem areas and getting more insight into the passage. The small group/discussion leader helps the group focus on Biblical truth, and not just on personal problems. The student is the only person who sees their own answers and shares only what they feel comfortable sharing.

After small groups meet for discussion and prayer, they often gather in a large group meeting where a teacher gives a brief lecture covering the essential teaching of the Bible passage that was studied during the prior week and discussed in the small groups. The teacher may clarify the passage and challenge class members to live a more committed daily life.

At home, the student begins the next lesson, which contains commentary notes on the prior week's passage and questions on a new Scripture passage.

1. Challenge questions are optional for those who want to dig deeper or write their personal opinion. Personal questions are between the individual doing the study and God. Those answers may be shared in class only if the individual would like to.

LEADERSHIP MATERIALS

Joy of Living Bible studies are a unique series that may be used by people who know nothing about the Bible, as well as by more knowledgeable Christians. Each person is nurtured and disciplined in God's Word, and many develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as they study.

Many plans for organizing and leading a class are included in the Leadership Training Guide. Variations in the class format or use of these materials are possible and may be necessary to accommodate the needs of your class. Ask the Lord to guide you as you plan for your group.

ANNE WALLS & DOTTIE HESEMAN

Anne Walls, author of the commentary portions of 1 Corinthians and 2 Corinthians, has taught Bible studies in churches, retreats, and seminars both nationally and internationally for over 30 years. She and her husband, Dr. Ralph Walls, make their home in Carmel, Indiana.

Dottie Heseman, author of the daily study questions for 1 Corinthians and 2 Corinthians, became a Christian as a young child and has been involved in Christian work most of her adult life. A former volunteer with Young Life, she has taught both adults and children. She and her husband, John Heseman, make their home in Indiana.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

Joy of Living Bible Studies cooperates with Christians of many denominations, standing firmly within the historic evangelical Christian faith.

We believe in one God, eternally existent in three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We are Christ-centered, believing in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, His sinless life, His miracles, His vicarious and atoning death, His bodily resurrection, His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and His approaching personal return in power and glory.

We believe in salvation by grace through faith.

We recognize the Bible as the inspired, infallible Word of God and the authority for what we believe and how we live.

We desire to manifest the love of God, blending the teaching of personal salvation and the imperative of acting in Christ-like compassion toward the hurting people in our communities and the world.

We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for the salvation of lost and sinful man; and in the present ministry of the indwelling Holy Spirit who enables each believer to live a godly life.

We believe in the spiritual oneness of all who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe in the resurrection of all people—they that are lost unto damnation, and they that are saved unto eternal life.

Anyone desiring to know more about God and what He has said in His Word are welcome to use our materials for studying God's Word of Life, the Bible.
